On Friday March 29th the Macklin Minor Football Association held a Sportsman Dinner featuring Guest Speakers Charleston Hughes (Saskatchewan Roughrider) followed by Brent Butt (Corner Gas & Comedian) at the Macklin Communiplex Hall. The event attracted more than 300 guests and they were certainly not disappointed in regard to the entertainment, auction items and night in general. Thanks to all our sponsors and generous bidders we were able to raise $50,869.70 including CNRL presenting a cheque for $7500 to be put towards our new LED Field Lights. These new lights will not only enhance our program but it will give us the ability to extend our times for practices and games given the limited amount of daylight available during the fall. This will also allow our players and opposition the unique opportunity to experience "playing under the lights". The projected cost for light fixtures, electrical cable, SaskPower service, trenching and labor to install is roughly $58,000. The plan is to erect (6) 40' foot light poles (3 poles per side) and each pole will have (4) LED low watt light fixtures so (24) fixtures total. In the coming months residents should start seeing some changes and work being done on the football field to trench in power and put up the fixtures and poles. The committee would like to extend a huge thank you to everyone that supported the event and look forward to our next Sportsman Charity Dinner, in a few years' time.

All skaters who attended received an award for a skill that they excelled at during this season from learning to skate forward or backward up to performing jumps and spins. The older skaters in the Starskate program also were awarded for the tests that they passed during this season. A special honor went to Leah Weinkauf for finishing all of her Gold Dances. Many thanks were given to the parents, coaches and skaters for the terrific season.

Letter from the Chief

Hello All

I hope this finds everyone happy and healthy after the long weekend. I hope you all got to spend some valuable time with family and friends!!!

We have had a quiet start to the year at the Firehall so far. (Touch wood) This is a good thing!!! The new truck has performed very well and is doing exactly what we had hoped and then some. The extra water we can carry now has saved us from calling for extra water trucks on some fires se have responded to. Recent major fires in Saskatchewan have shown us how dry this area is and how quickly small fires can get out of control. The last fire we were dispatched to we were told it was a very small fire that was just about out. 3 minutes later as we were driving to the scene we could see heavy black smoke and we knew where we were going and that it was no longer a small fire!! The people who saw the fire called 911 first and then tried to put it out themselves. They said it was just about out and then a small breeze came up and it got out of control very quickly. Thank you to them for stopping and to the neighbors who came with tractors to move dirt and help get the fire under control.

Macklin & District Fire Rescue is recommending no open fires now until we get some much needed rain and things begin to green up out there. Be safe out there all!!!

Bantams League Champs

The Macklin Bantam Mohawks have successfully defended their Highway 14 League Championship title for the second year in a row!

They defeated the EDD Ramblers (Eston/Doddsland/Dinsmore) in the final, with two straight victories in the three game series Final on home ice March 17th. The Macklin Bantams finished first in the Highway 14 Hockey league and secured a bye in the first round. Their second round opponents were the Unity Lazars who Macklin beat in a hard fought two game total points series 9 to 5 to advance onto the final. The Mohawks saved their best Hockey for the final with a convincing 6-1 victory in game one, on the road in Eston. They then wrapped things up on March 17th on home ice with a 3-1 victory, to capture the League trophy and raise another "League Championship banner" in the Macklin Rink rafters.

Congratulations to all the Players, Coaches and staff for the great season!!!

Macklin Novice White are League Champions!

Their strongest competition was the other Macklin Novice Blue team. It is not easy having Macklin play Macklin in a final game like this being there can only be one winner. The players all worked hard and both teams should be proud of their accomplishments

"The little store with more"

The 18U Rage volleyball team completed their season on April 13-14th weekend at Saskatchewan Volleyball Association (SVA) Provincials held in Saskatoon. The team finished as Division 2 Champions once again. The team won the Division 2 Championship last year as U17 team. The girls were able to accomplish this from hard work, dedication and their love of the game. The team started practicing in Macklin back in January, once a week, until the Provincial Championship in April. Along the way the team competed in three Sask Cups (SVA tournaments – Saskatoon, Warman & Lloydminster), also tournaments in Biggar and Lumsden. The first Sask Cup was January 26/27 in Saskatoon. The girls played extremely well and almost beat the top seated team Saskatoon Smash. At the end of pool play we were tied with Esterhazy Heat for second. Sunday after being undefeated we played against P.A. Toppers En Fuego (U17 silver medalists last year) in the division 2 final. The girls battled in two very tight sets, losing (25-23, 25-22). Sask Cup 2 (Lloydminster - Feb 23/24). The team had a tough weekend and ended up second in Division 2 once again, losing to a team they beat in Sask Cup 1 (Wascana Selects). Sask Cup 3 (Warman/ Saskatoon - Mar 16/17). The girls finished first in their pool beating Regina, Saskatoon, and Esterhazy. The girls had to play P.A. Toppers Sunday morning in the cross over and losing (25-16 & 25-23). The girls went on to defeat Swift Current to advance to the Division 2 semi-finals losing to Rose Valley (25-22/ 26-24). The next tournament was in Lumsden (April 6th) the weekend before provincials. We were in a pool with the Saskatoon Smash, South East Surge (Weyburn/Oxbow) and Regina. We came out of our pool 3rd, after very close matches between Smash and Surge. We beat Swift Current and then Rose Valley to be the "B" side champs. The girls' hard work and great play, prepared us for provincials. The girls carried the momentum into Provincials and went undefeated all weekend to be the Division 2 Provincial Champions. (If you are interested all the scores (Sask Cups/Provincials), Interviews, Finals video and pictures can all be found on Saskatchewan Volleyball Association website, Instagram page or Facebook page. Things are kind of scattered all over). So, a great end to a great season!

This team has been together for the most part of three club seasons starting in 2016 as U16. These girls are not just phenomenal athletes, but fantastic, enthusiastic, respectful and caring young adults. The core of the team will graduate out this year leaving us with Emma King, Devyn Steinhubel, Leah Weinkauff and Emma Stang for next season. I want to wish our Grade 12 girls all the best with their future endeavors, you will be missed. The parents have been so supportive, eager, engaged and fun the last three years. They worked at tournaments, arranged rooms (Kylee Erker/Lynette Steinhubel), athletes and tournament registration (Carrie Baier - Manager), paying of bills/collecting money (Leanne Thomas - Treasurer), injury treatment (Angela Leer) and finding sponsors (Bob Baier). I could never have asked for a better group of parents and athletes. It has been a blessing! Finally, I would like to thank our sponsors this season. Our financial sponsors were MTM, Black Bull, Steel View and Prairieview Physiotherapy. The Living Sky School Division for the use of their Gymnasiums and equipment.

Mother's Hands

by Susan Conly

Bob was a grown man, his Mom and Dad were old.

Mother's Day was tomorrow, Bob wondered what it meant for them—do they have strong emotions about each other? But how could they—so old; life so monotonous after 65 years? Yet this morning when he called, they were fighting, shouting about something that had happened 35 years ago. Bob was amused, then alarmed.

"That's the way you are, always so sure of yourself."

"I ought to know, I was there." "Well, I was there, too."

"You don't remember very well then."

"My memory is perfect," his father shouted.

They yelled like newlyweds then his father grabbed his hat, rushed out slamming the door.

"Let him go, stubborn old mule."

"What were you fighting about anyway?"

"I don't remember. He's just so stubborn." Bob sat with her for a while, then left. Around dinnertime, his mother called "He's not back. I hope he doesn't do anything foolish. He's not a young man, you know."

"I know" Bob said, "I'll go look for him downtown."

Fifteen years ago, Bob's father had to leave his beloved homestead and had decided to soothe himself with alcohol but he got over that, never touched the stuff again. Yet Bob wondered if maybe he had gone to one of his old haunts. Amazing to think of him, at his age, being sulky; or mother being wistful like a girl after their first quarrel. But he was in none of the bars. It was pouring rain, Bob finally gave up, went back to his mother's place. She was weeping now.

"I believe he has really run away." she sobbed. They sat there waiting for a long time. At last the door opened, his father walked calmly in with a small package in his hand, smiled and said "Hello".

"Where have you been?" Bob asked.

Mother really didn't care, just so glad to see him.

"A movie", father shrugged, "a lot of silly girls and their mushy love affairs.

"Here" and he handed her the package. It was a bottle of hand lotion, the sort guaranteed to make your hands soft as silk. His father hung his head a little and blushed. It was quite touching. Mother beamed. "What a lovely bottle!"

"They say it keeps your hands like velvet" his father said.

Those hands had worked for many years; washing, baking, scrubbing, digging in a garden, helping in the fields --now, work-worn, misshapen, rough. But to his father they were still the hands of the woman he loved, a woman who had stayed in his heart for over 65 years.

Mother was beaming with pleasure and love. Gently she reached for his hand.

Bob knew it was time he went home.
